Anyone who lives in the following counties or cities is also entitled to a free library card: Arlington, Charles, District of Columbia, Fairfax, Falls Church, Fauquier, Frederick, Loudoun, Montgomery, Prince George's and Prince William.

Rules of the library are posted in each branch and online.

PROGRAMS AND EVENTS

We offer a variety of programs and events for Library customers — free of charge.

Classes

We offer computer classes, English language learning classes and much more.

Genealogy

Want to know your family history? Visit our Local History/Special Collections to find out how.

Special Events

From All Alexandria Reads to Le Tour d'Alexandria bicycle tour, we have something fun for every age group.

Storytimes

Enjoy read alouds, singing and more at our fun-filled storytimes for children ages newborn and up.

Summer Reading

Our summer reading isn't just for kids. We offer Adult Summer Reading and Teen Reading, too.

SUPPORT THE LIBRARY

As a Library supporter, there are many ways you can get involved:

Become a Friend of the Library

Each branch has a Friends group, that works to support the Library's programs and services.

Donate to the Alexandria Library Foundation

Individuals, groups and organizations can support the Library by making a donation to the Library Foundation.

Volunteer at the Library

Volunteers comprise an important part of the Library's operations and perform a variety of duties.

OUTREACH SERVICES

The Library provides a range of outreach services to residents who live in the City of Alexandria. These include visits to schools, a delivery program for homebound individuals and visits to events such as farmer's markets and health fairs.

Look for us at other events throughout the City.

LIBRARY SERVICES

The Library provides a range of services:

Meeting Rooms

We have four meeting rooms available for customer use at Beatley Central, Burke Branch and Duncan Branch libraries.
